One month into social distancing, I am now identifying as Bill Murray in Groundhog Day... In the midst of normalcy being constantly alluding, hope you've managed to find some enjoyment today! This week, we saw the S&P have its best week since 1974—now 25% above March low, unemployment reach record levels, and the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) cause all levels of frustration. By the way, I've spent dozens of hours (that could have otherwise been spent watching Tiger King) on the PPP small business loan program, so if you have any questions about the application or would like to get connected to a banker, please let me know!
